

All Saints Church Notting Hill

Cordially request the pleasure of your company at an evening of wine and music to celebrate the 150th anniversary of All Saints Notting Hill.

Music of Black Origin versus Music of British Origin

*Saturday 28th January: Andrew Tait & Friends
Presents music by Samuel Coleridge Taylor;*

1875 – 1912

Samuel Coleridge Taylor was, at the turn of the Century one of Britain's most outstanding Composers who achieved such success that he was once called the "African Mahler".

Venue: All Saints Church, Clydesdale Road, W11

Performance starts 7pm

Dress code: Smart Casual

Ticket £10

Tickets at the door

N.B. Donations in aid of the continuous maintenance work at All Saints Notting Hill will be much appreciated on the evening.

Sponsored by

JOHN NODES
LADBROKE GROVE