HARVEST FESTIVAL

Our Harvest Festival takes place on Sunday 10th October. At both masses we will be collecting food for our Foodbank. Please be generous and support this work. We are particularly in need to tinned meat and tinned fruit as well as long life milk.

We will also be launching our Songs of Praise booklet at the Sunday Masses. Come along and get yours! They are a great devotional resource.

WELCOME TEAM

As part of our commitment to welcome and mission we would like to form a Welcome Team in our parishes. They would welcome people to church, assist at the Mass and help with after Mass refreshments. A warm welcome is really important to our parishes. If you would like to be part of this team please speak to a Churchwarden. This would be no more than one Sunday every few weeks. This is an important work in the life of the church.

ROSARY

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. The Rosary will be recited at the following times:

Tuesdays after the 10am Mass at All Saints

Wednesdays at 12 noon at St Michael's

Saturday after the 10am Mass at All Saints

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Our Commemoration will take place at 2pm on Sunday 24th October. We will focus on the life and witness of Kelso Cochrane. Look out for more details.
